My pup was at my parents getting puppy sat for the night when all I know I was told she took off into the field and sister and daughter tried calling her she'd stop and when they tried to approach her she would take off running again. This is all I know.

Perdy - She is only 6months old and is up to date on her shots. Mostly white with brown and black spots very unique looking in my opinion, she is wearing her pink collar with her rabbits tag and her name tag with my number on the back. She is very friendly but is also a bit skittish around people she doesn't know. He...
